Daytona 500

Rev up for an unforgettable NASCAR adventure in sunny Florida! Join us for an action-packed getaway to Daytona, where you'll experience the excitement of the ARCA Menards Series, the O'Reilly Auto Parts Race, and the legendary Daytona 500—the "Great American Race." With comfortable hotel accommodations, roundtrip motorcoach transportation, expert tour direction, and tailgate cookouts at the bus, you can leave the driving to us and focus on the roar of the engines, the thrill of the track, and the excitement of NASCAR's biggest weekend.

Start your Engines and head with us as we travel south to beautiful Sunny Florida for the kick -off to the NASCAR season. Tonight, we will check into the Hampton Inn Deerwood Park in Jacksonville, FL where we will spend the next 3 nights.

Saturday, February 20, 2027

This morning we will head down to beautiful Daytona and the Daytona International Speedway for the ARCA Menards series race and the O'Reilly Auto Parts race. This will be a full day filled with fun "on track" activities. Included in your day will be a lunch cookout tailgate provided to you at the bus. We will return to Jacksonville after the race.

Sunday, February 21, 2027

It is back to Daytona again today as we prepare for the "Great American Race". Today, you will enjoy the 69th annual running of the Daytona 500 where 43 of the world's top drivers will compete for this prestigious title. Along with the on-track activities, you will also be treated to another lunch cookout tailgate at the bus and be able to enjoy all the events happening around the track.

Monday, February 22, 2027

Today, we will make out way back toward Virginia with fuel filled memories and hopefully a win from our favorite driver!
